

Terms and Conditions

- Submissions sent will be reviewed by the editorial team and their acceptance and consequent publication of the piece will be final.
- Editing will be kept minimal in order to maintain the essence and authenticity of the piece.
- Some grammatical changes may be made, where felt necessary.
- In case ANY changes (as mentioned above) are made to your submission, your consent will be taken before publishing the piece.
- In case consent sought is not received, the piece will be returned.
- Any content that is insensitive, contains explicit language, defamatory speech, targeting an individual or community will not be accepted.
- Plagiarism is NOT accepted.
- Confirmation emails will be sent regarding the acceptance of your work along with feedback (if required).
- Once accepted, your piece will likely be uploaded on the SBS Mag site within three working days.
- Re-submissions may be made once the given feedback has been incorporated.

Guidelines for Submission

- Writing
 - Multiple pieces of work can be sent at once.
 - To be sent in the form of a word document or google doc (with editing rights).
 - The document should be titled type of piece (article, poetry, short story, opinion piece, interview etc.), as well as your full name, class and section. E.g. poem_maya_IX A.
 - If you want your work to be uploaded anonymously, please mention this, though for submissions we would need your name, class and section. Your details would remain strictly anonymous outside the Mag Team.
 - Please mention a title for your entry at the top of the document.

- Your write-up should include any additional formatting such as italics or bold letters, if you want that to be a part of your entry.
 - If you have a preference for a cover image for your entry, attach that as well. It should be high quality, related to the topic and in .jpg format.
- Art and Photography:
 - To be sent as an attached image in .jpg format.
 - The attachment title should include the category (artwork, photography or other), your name, class and section. For example, artwork_maya_IX A.
 - Please compress your image using a tool like <https://tinypng.com/>.
 - If you want your work to have a title or caption, mention this in the email you send.
 - Please ensure the picture you have taken is clear with good lighting.
